Registration checks and tuition checks are two separate accounts. Therefore, two separate checks are required. If your child takes dances in day care, please place checks along with registration form in the money drop box labeled Augusta Youth School of Dance that is located in the lobby of your day care.

One for registration in the amount of _____ One for monthly tuition in the amount of _____

I understand that Augusta Youth School of Dance will be free from liability or claims of any injury or illness while on studio premises or doing outside performances. I/we agree that Augusta Youth School of Dance owners, Preston Dye and Debbie Dye and its instructors will not be held responsible. Augusta Youth School of Dance has the right to remove any student from class for just cause.

If my child registers after December, I understand that my child will not be able to participate in the recital due to late registration. We accept registration all year, however, if your child registers after December, they will not be able to perform in our spring recital.

Permission is needed by parent or legal guardian to use dance photographs of your child for promotional services such as brochures, newspaper, web-site, etc. _____

I understand that ALL fees are non-refundable. Past due payments could result in child being dismissed from class. If you have an agreement with a family member to pay fees, remember this agreement is between you and the family member and not Augusta Youth School of Dance. Parent or legal guardian is responsible for making sure all fees are paid by required dates.

I understand that Augusta Youth School of Dance has the right to combine or cancel classes for any reason in which all monies owed will be refunded or prorated
